

Designing out Crime

COCOONING PROJECT

Designing Out Crime is about planning and designing spaces in a way that makes crime less likely to happen. The idea is that the way we build and organise places can either encourage or prevent criminal behaviour.

To request an appointment for a free safety audit of your street or neighbourhood, please complete the form below and return it to the City of Mandurah, a representative of the Community Development Team will contact you.

First name:
Last name:
Address:
Suburb:
Phone number:
Email:
Homeowner or tenant:
Preferred appointment day(s) (Monday-Friday):
Preferred appointment time (morning or afternoon):

Please return completed form to the City of Mandurah or email to council@mandurah.wa.gov.au

All personal information will be kept confidential. By completing this form you have consented to the City collecting your personal information. Refer to the City's disclaimer on the City's website www.mandurah.wa.gov.au/online-tools/disclaimer

