I have worked across many industries and with diverse communities, giving me a practical and people-focused approach to leadership. Council must always remember it works for the community.

As Mayor, I will focus on fixing drainage and flooding, supporting small business by cutting red tape, and making Mandurah safer and more vibrant for families, residents and visitors. I want to see our foreshore and restaurants thriving day and night, with a city that attracts investment and creates jobs.

I will also ensure affordable access to sport and recreation, protect our coastline and waterways, and keep council open, transparent and accountable.
