My vision for Mandurah is to be the most livable city in the world,

A city with a powerful and vibrant economy that celebrates the arts, and coexists with nature.

That is the most beautiful place to live on earth. Where the elderly are respected and protected, where the youth are uplifted and inspired into prosperity. A city with shaded footpaths and efficient transport. Clean, Safe streets, housing for all, a convenient and cost-effective place to live. A city to be celebrated by locals and tourists alike.

As an experienced city councillor and environmental engineer I have the skills to deliver a bright future for our City. I'm a husband to a dedicated local doctor with our four young children. I'm committed to making it happen for you, for your little corner of Mandurah.

My plan is to grow a truly urban CBD with conference facilities. To protect the serenity of the suburbs, and guide growth that's eco-centric, community focused and protects Mandurah's way of life.
