I believe leadership is about showing up, listening, and acting with integrity - that's how I've lived my life, and it's how I'll lead as your Mayor.

Mandurah has been my home since I was a teenager. It's where my husband and I are raising our three kids, and where our family business supports local jobs and trades. I know the pressures facing our community because I've lived them.

For over 30 years, I've served in and grown with our community - through grassroots work, board leadership, and Council.

I'm running for Mayor because I care deeply about this city and its people. I have a Diploma in Local Government.

I believe in a Council that is transparent, accessible, and responsive. I'll focus on safer streets, better health services, youth opportunities, and stronger support for families and seniors, working with our community to create positive generational change.

With smart use of resources and genuine collaboration - Let's strengthen the heart of our city, together.
