I am a father of four teenagers, a business owner and, with 20 years background in secondary teaching but now working in logistics, I live and feel the struggles all parents, workers and rate- payers alike.

I believe this position in the council is for the benefit of all people in the Mandurah district, acting as your liaison between your needs and the governing bodies to become a functional, prosperous, and exciting part of Australia.

Commerce is the driving force behind social civility and am adamant to ensure its structural longevity in the peel region.

The Mandurah community at large requires safety and the rightful services for all its citizens and I will engage appropriate authorities to deal with any issues at its basis.

Life is to be lived at its fullest, so let's for aim for that together, today.
