Negotiate a new Enterprise Agreement and lodge with the Western Australia Industrial Relations	5.4			People Services
Commission.
Quarter 1 (July - September)			An employee Consultative Committee meeting was held on 18 September 2023. Attendees introduced themselves. Some union members attended.
			A second industrial bargaining meeting was held on 12 October 2023. The format for bargaining meetings moving forward was discussed along with the main differences between the State and Federal system. It was decided that bargaining meetings would occur fortnightly from then on through the bargaining period.

Quarter 2 (October - December)			Industrial Agreement Consultative Committee meetings continue to be held on a fortnightly basis which includes unions. The ASU have yet to attend, and a letter was sent requesting their attendance and participation in good faith bargaining.
			Formal bargaining commences as of 1 February and logs of claims have been submitted with the ASU encouraged to attend and submit theirs as of 1 Feb. Once all logs of claims are received the City will consider its position on the requests and will also draft a replacement Industrial Agreement that is compliant with State IR Legislation for negotiation and registration.
Quarter 3 (January - March)		•	Industrial Agreement Consultative Committee meetings continue to be held on a fortnightly basis with all unions.
			Formal bargaining commenced as of 1 February and logs of claims have been submitted. The City has advised which items it is willing to consider, provided a counter salary offer and has drafted the new draft agreement for the consideration of Union and employees. The proposed replacement Industrial Agreement has been drafted to ensure that we are compliant with State IR Legislation.
Quarter 4 (April - June)			A replacement Industrial Agreement was unable to be negotiated before the current Enterprise Agreement expired on the 30 April 2024. Despite the City's best efforts including fortnightly consultation and negotiation meetings and making fair salary offers the proposed Industrial Agreement and final Salary offer was not accepted by the Unions and their members.
